

OT Practices in Patients with CVA (CPD-AG10)

Course Objectives

To empower participants with practical skills and updated knowledge for managing patients with cerebrovascular accident (CVA) in community settings

Target Participants

Junior OTs working in geriatric community settings;
OTs from other specialties/settings

Course Content

- ❖ Introduction to CVA and its updates
- ❖ Common assessment and its implications
- ❖ Intervention strategies: practical applications and considerations
- ❖ Application of advanced technology in stroke rehabilitation
- ❖ Case studies

The Speaker: Mr. Ivan Cheung

Senior Occupational Therapist of a Public Hospital in Hong Kong

Date	30 August 2025 (Saturday)
Time	0930 – 1230 (Registration starts at 0900)
Venue	Lecture Theatre (2/F, Tung Wah College Mong Kok Campus, Cheung Chin Lan Hong Building, 98 Shantung Street, Kln)
Capacity	80 (First come, first served)
Fee and CPD credits	$ 450 for 3 credits
Language	Cantonese and English
Enquiry	Registration: Mr. Sam Leung (samleung@twc.edu.hk / 31906715) Course Content: Dr. Larry Lee (larrylee@twc.edu.hk / 3725 6246)

Online registration ends on or before

8 August 2025, or when full:

<https://www.twc.edu.hk/limesurvey/index.php/437793>

Payment link will be sent to your email address within two working days after receiving your registration form. Please settle your payment within three days to secure your spot.

About our speaker:

Name	Mr Cheung Wai Lok, Ivan
Year of OT practice	Since 2012
Correspondence	E mail: cwl352@ha.org.hk
Current job title	Senior occupational therapist
Current place of work	A public hospital in Hong Kong
Clinical expertise	Stroke rehabilitation Neurological rehabilitation Application of assistive technology
Clinical experience	Mr. Cheung is an experienced occupational therapist (OT) with over 12 years of service in local public hospitals. He has worked across inpatient, day patient, outpatient, and community OT settings. Currently, he serves as the OT in charge of medical and geriatric rehabilitation services at a public hospital. Actively involved in stroke rehabilitation service development, he has conducted clinical research projects and audits. He has also presented his research and quality improvement projects at conferences.

Points to note:

1. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.
 2. Please ensure that you provide accurate email and contact phone numbers to receive payment links and updated notifications.
 3. A payment link will be emailed within two working days after receiving your registration form. Please complete your payment within three days to secure your spot. A hard copy of the payment receipt will be distributed at the registration counter on the spot. An electronic certificate will be emailed in four weeks.
 4. The course material and the reminders will be emailed to you three days (or earlier) before the seminar.
 5. The course fee is non-transferable and non-refundable. It will only be refunded when Tung Wah College cancels the course due to unforeseeable circumstances.
 6. For the adverse weather arrangement, please visit our website for details: https://www.twc.edu.hk/en/Administration_Units/reg/our_service/current_student/adverse_weather_arrangement. In short, the course held in the morning will be canceled if the typhoon signals pre-No. 8 / No. 8 or above / Black Rainstorm Warning is in force at or after 6:15 am. You will receive an email notification regarding any course change on or before 07:30 am.
 7. Participants are expected to arrive on time and attend the entire duration of the training course for an attendance certificate.
 8. Tung Wah College reserves the right to make the final decision in any dispute.
 9. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.
- 