The psychological knowledge I learned was very practical in my daily life and could be applied to different scenarios. As an athlete, I used to make myself stressed during races. Studying psychology enabled me to understand more the origin of negative thoughts and helped me find my way to handle stress in a proper way. I am thankful to the College for providing great support for my non-academic development, such as trail running and photography. It boosted my confidence and sharpened my leadership skills.

My studying experience at Tung Wah College is pretty awesome and I am very pleased to say that I have met some of the greatest teachers in my life here. I could always run to them when I have any problem, no matter it's about my career, my assignment, my practicum, or even my personal issue. Without their support, I won't be able to make it through our practicum during the pandemic. In these 4 years, me, my classmates and the teachers are so close to each other, it's like I'm in secondary school again, which is something I've never heard from my friends from another university before. Therefore, I want to give my hearty thanks to ECE teachers for their guidance and advice on both my study and personal growth.

Mandy

During my study at Tung Wah College, our teachers provide a quality and vivid learning atmosphere. They are generous in sharing their kindergarten teaching experiences which are useful to be applied in practicums, especially the class management skills. Also, before I conducted a placement in a kindergarten, workshops were held to explain what we should do. As a result, we were not so stressed when we managed the classes on our first attempt. These are the reasons why I decided to articulate to senior year entry of Bachelor of Education (Honours) in Early Childhood Education.
