Yvonne Wong

Current student of the Bachelor of Health Information and Services Management (Year 3)

My last two years of study at TWC have been fulfilling. This programme helped me discover my passion for health information, solidifying my career goals. The patient guidance provided by the faculty has further motivated me to diligently pursue my studies. Besides, the hands-on internships and part-time work at public and private hospitals have deepened my understanding of the field, enhancing my workplace readiness. I feel very fortunate to be in this programme, which has facilitated my self-exploration and instilled confidence in my ability to pursue a rewarding healthcare career.
