About Tung Wah College

TWC is a self-financing tertiary education institution established by Tung Wah Group of Hospitals (TWGHs) which is the oldest and largest charitable organization in Hong Kong providing a wide range of medical and health, education and community services to fulfil the needs of the society. The College went through the Institutional Review (IR) by the Hong Kong Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications (HKCAAVQ) in 2010 and is registered under the Post-Secondary College Ordinance (Cap. 320) as an approved self-financing degree granting institution.

Currently the College has four schools, namely, School of Arts and Humanities, School of Business, School of Medical and Health Sciences and School of Nursing. Degree and sub-degree programmes are offered in diverse disciplines (including Psychology, Early Childhood Education, Accounting, Business, Entrepreneurship, Health Services Management, Forensic Science, Medical Laboratory Science, Radiation Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Nursing and Applied Gerontology etc.). The College has a student population of over 2,300 and has nurtured over 1,000 graduates.
